

Communications Intern Opportunity

“Discover how you can apply your talent and skills to harness powerful change with our career building opportunities”

About Anza

Anza believes that entrepreneurs will transform Tanzania. We provide entrepreneurs with capacity, capital and the community they need to thrive via the Anza accelerator programs and the Anza Growth Fund.

Anza is running two programs the Investment Readiness (IR) program and the Business Foundation Accelerator (BFA) program. Both are designed to support distinct segments of entrepreneurs to capital and expand their business.

Internship position

We have graduate opening for communications intern in our offices in Arusha.

Specific Responsibilities

- i. Develop new visuals to improve Anza brand awareness.
- ii. Create animated videos to show how Anza supports entrepreneurs
- iii. Develop captions for Anza social media channels
- iv. Act as community manager with the help of fundraising and partnership manager
- v. Help in website development, assist in development of blog posts, ensure website is up to date

The qualified candidate will receive the following benefits

Tools and opportunities to learn and grow your career, Possibility of employment from our partners, Transport allowance, Communication allowance.

Send your motivational letter and CV to hr@anza.co.com

Deadline for application 13 January 2023

